Q. Brian, first Champions Tour event under the belt and looks like you're on track for a Top 5 finish. Just your thoughts on the week.

BRIAN GAY: Yeah, good week overall. Few up and downs. Hit a lot of good putts today that just hung on the edge, rolled over the edge. It was a good, solid week.

Q. Next week you're going to Honda. Sounds like you're going to try to flip back and forth, these next couple months at least.

BRIAN GAY: Yeah, I'm going to do the rest of the Florida swing on the regular tour and stay close to home. Just got back from out west so I don't really want to go back and forth. And then pop back out here in a couple months probably.

Q. What's it like looking at a leaderboard and seeing Langer up there?

BRIAN GAY: It's pretty normal, right? Except I'm not used to being out there with him. Yeah, pretty unbelievable. He just keeps going.

Q. Anything from this experience that -- you talked the other day about trying to decide what will work for you, or will you look at the schedule deeper maybe and see -- you know, as you mentioned you don't want to go back and forth from going out west or crisscrossing the country?

BRIAN GAY: Yeah, I'm definitely going to sort some things out and really try to narrow some things down and figure out what I'm going to do, especially with some of the majors this summer.

A lot of it could depend on how I play the next six weeks or so on the regular tour. Could play better out there, but we'll see. Have to figure it out.
