Q. Seven birdies, including the closing birdies at 17 and 18 to get you into the penultimate group tomorrow; how did you get it done today on this layout?

EMILIANO GRILLO: You know, I don't think we're going to find it as easy as it was today. The greens are perfect. There's no wind out there. Just got to go and play some golf. We're professionals; we're used to tough conditions, and when we get into easy conditions like today, we're going to take advantage of it.

I'm happy the way I played today. I just left a bunch of putts on the back nine short of the hole, and could have been a really, really low one today. But I'm happy.

Q. You've been able to avoid the bogeys; how do you feel about the weekend and trying to chase down the guy at the top of the leaderboard?

EMILIANO GRILLO: Well, I know that I'm not going to be able to -- I hope so, but it's a tricky golf course. If I avoid the bogeys on the weekend, it's going to be a solid week. It's going to be complicated catching Stewart Cink. He's playing some great golf, and he's six shots ahead.

You know, I know there's still a lot of golf to be played, so we'll see.
