Q. Corey, 3-under 68, just talk about the final round, please.

COREY CONNORS: Yeah, a pretty solid day. I felt like I played pretty solidly, just didn't have those bonus putts fall in for me. I gave myself a lot of good chances, hit a lot of smart shots when I needed to. Didn't really get myself into too much trouble. I would have liked to see a few more putts go in, but overall it was a solid day. Golf course was playing kind of tricky with the winds up a little bit.

Q. Talk a little bit about sort of getting through the week just in terms of after the Masters and a long stretch for you. Is the tank empty a little bit right now?

COREY CONNORS: Yeah, you know, I felt really good out there on the golf course. I felt like my focus level was high and energy felt good, but definitely looking forward to a week at home and recharging the batteries a little bit. I have played a lot of golf lately and been playing well, so just been kind of riding some adrenaline, but definitely ready for a little break.

Q. Looks like low RBC ambassador. Just talk about that, playing well this week.

COREY CONNORS: Yeah, I'm a proud member of Team RBC and they're great to me, great to golf all over the world and golf in Canada. There's a lot of great players in their stable, and I was trying to come out on top this week, would have felt a little extra special, but overall happy with the week and thanks to RBC for all they do.
