RBC Heritage

SI WOO KIM: Everyone going low the first few holes, that was really helpful. Yeah, I think irons kind of felt a little back this week, so kind of wherever feels really comfortable. So yeah. Last few holes I played great, so yeah, looking forward to tomorrow.

Q. What is it about this golf course? Last year a top-10 finish. You were runner-up several years ago. What's it going to take for tomorrow to be right there at the end?

SI WOO KIM: Yeah, it's always great to be here, and I play a lot of good weeks here, so good memories. Yeah, every time I came here I just feel really comfortable. I like the course, that I don't have to hit it far, because normally guys hit it 50 yards further than me, so that helps me a lot. The course has a lot of trees, like when I grow up in Korea kind of like this course, really similar, so it helps me a lot.

Q. What has been the biggest difference for you this season? You've had a bunch of top 5s. You've made every cut. What has stood out for you in your game and maybe in your life?

SI WOO KIM: I think it's because I started with a couple of good weeks. It helps me a lot. Then makes me feel really comfortable, and I don't have to worry about keep the TOUR card. I try to keep the feel and flow, and used to be when I played good a couple weeks, I play kind of -- after a couple good weeks, like whatever, and this year trying to be, every week trying to be top 10 or top 5. I think it's a little change my mind, and then I think that helps me keep going.
