Quick Quotes

Q. I don't know if you noticed, but the sun came out just as you were hitting the final putt. It just seemed like the perfect way to end a pretty crazy day and the past four days. How have the past four hours been for you leading up to the last moment?

K.H. LEE: Long day for me, I think everybody. I mean, but I just try keep patient and positive thinking. So I don't want to looking on the leaderboard, so just try my golf, and then successful now, so I'm very excited and happy.

Q. Very successful. And describe what you were feeling when that last putt went in.

K.H. LEE: Before a lot of imagine when I win, like what is that, (Through translation.) Like, yeah, like fist pump or I imagine a lot of things, but too excited over there. Almost forget everything.

So excited, yeah.

Q. That tends to happen in an exciting moment. You had the putter change this week. Seems like you were working through having that positive mindset. To see that all come together and now knowing you're going to the PGA Championship, how excited are you about your game right now?

K.H. LEE: Yeah, a lot of help for change putter. Couple months putting so bad but never change my putter, but this week change and so that's a lot of help this week. (Smiling.) Excited.

Q. Congratulations, and we'll see you at the PGA next week.

K.H. LEE: Thank you.
