Quick Quotes

Q. Biggest take-aways from round 3?

DUSTIN JOHNSON: I didn't feel like I played that bad. It was just, if I could get a bad break, I did. It felt like all day, every shot that I had was in between clubs. It was just a weird round.

I still feel like I'm swinging it well. I'm doing a lot of good things. Obviously, I would have liked to be a little bit closer to the lead, but who knows what can happen. I feel like I'm playing good enough to go out and shoot a really good score. Work on a few things and get ready for this afternoon.

Q. It is a weird round. What do you do for the next four or five hours?

DUSTIN JOHNSON: I don't know. That's a good question. Probably go to the gym and then go get ready for my fourth round.

Q. With a place kind of as volatile as Congaree, you can either get a number or lose a number out here, is seven shots too far back?

DUSTIN JOHNSON: I mean, probably, but you never know.
