Quick Quotes

Q. 68 today, make the cut in your first ever PGA TOUR event. Just get some comments on how happy you are and about your round today.

AARON COCKERILL: Yeah, it was a solid day. I played really well today. Had a decent amount of buddies out there and they were having some fun. It was fun to make a few birdies for them and hole a few putts and happy with the day.

Q. How excited are you for the weekend now?

AARON COCKERILL: Yeah, it's going to be a blast. First PGA TOUR event and in a decent position going into the weekend, so kind of where I want to be and see if we can throw a low one on the board tomorrow and see what happens.

Q. How was it playing in front of a PGA TOUR event for sure but also a Canadian crowd?

AARON COCKERILL: Yeah, it was fun. We get decent crowds on the European Tour, but being a local and having that local support is awesome. I'm sure they will be out in full force tomorrow, so looking forward to it.

Q. As of right now obviously, there still is the afternoon wave, but right now you're the low Canadian. How does that feel, your first PGA TOUR event and you're showing out like that?

AARON COCKERILL: That's cool. We'll see if it changes. Yeah, I feel like my game's in a good position and I've been working hard for awhile and maybe I'm a little bit unnoticed playing in Europe, but this is a good opportunity for me to prove myself over here.
