Ascension
CHARITY CLASSIC

Q. All right, Y.E., 6-under; great round today. How was it out there?

Y.E. YANG: It was windy, but luckily the greens were soft so I was able to shoot a good number out there today.

Q. Does this add to your confidence going into the weekend, knowing that you got off to such a good start?

Y.E. YANG: I know the course well. I'm pretty comfortable with the golf course. I think that I can play very well on the weekend.

Q. Is there anything you've been working on in your game lately?

Y.E. YANG: I'm just working on my backswing. It got a little bit long and upright so I'm trying to get my left arm more on plane, a little bit tighter on the backswing. Doing that I'm hitting it a lot better.

Q. Last two years you've had Top 5 finishes here. What is it about this golf course that suits you?

Y.E. YANG: I don't know really why but it course reminds me of courses in Korea, hilly and up and down. I think because of that, it feels pretty comfortable.
