Quick Quotes

Q. Thor, in contention again on the PGA TOUR going into the final round. Summarize how the day went out there today.

THORBJØRN OLESEN: Yeah, obviously a little bit sour feeling with that happening on 17. I thought I hit a decent shot; pulled it maybe a couple yards left. Yeah, got punished for it.

You know, all in all it was a great round of golf I thought. I was in good control out there. Holed some good putts to finish off the front nine.

Yeah, felt like it was a really solid round.

Q. Feel like the conditions were really ripe for getting a low number? Did it feel like at any point you knew you were going to have to put a low one out there to stay in the mix?

THORBJØRN OLESEN: Yeah, definitely after nine holes you could see people were getting off to a good start and there was a lot of low scores out there. I was trying to keep being aggressive and try to make more birdies.

Yeah, still in a good position for tomorrow.

Q. How is the energy right now? You've been flying all over the place every week. Flew here from Dubai. How is the energy?

THORBJØRN OLESEN: Yeah, felt great the last three days to be honest. Wednesday was -- the first three days there, Monday to Wednesday was tough. Yeah, since Thursday morning I've felt really good.

So energy feels high and just going to do a little bit of recovery work this afternoon and hopefully be ready tomorrow.

Q. How excited are you for this challenge, in contention on the PGA TOUR in the final round?

THORBJØRN OLESEN: Yeah, I haven't been in that position over here that much. Only a couple times I think. So still trying to learn from that. Yeah, I'm going to go out there and try my best tomorrow. It might not happen tomorrow but hopefully it'll happen sometime soon.
