Quick Quotes

Q. Nice playing today. A little bit different than your scorecard yesterday. Can you talk about what you've learned about the course over the past couple days?

TONY FINAU: Yeah, for sure. I think I just got a little more familiar with it having that extra round yesterday. I played really nicely today. I was really happy with how I played. Just a couple little things and a couple putts go my way -- I feel like I hit really good putts and they just didn't go in. Looks like I'm going to probably just miss the weekend, but some positives as I move into next week.

Q. How is the support out there for you from all the locals?

TONY FINAU: It was so much fun. It was great to play in front of a home crowd. I haven't had that opportunity in my career, so to have a PGA TOUR event in Utah and have a home crowd kind of supporting you and behind me, I've felt it my whole life, but to be actually able to play in front of them is extremely special. Definitely had some different nerves that I'm not really used to, but I think I did a pretty good job of trying to just calm my nerves and play my game.

Q. When did those, did those nerves subside at any point?

TONY FINAU: Yeah, once I hit the first tee shot it was pretty much golf. But recognizing how many family and friends are here just to support me, it just means a lot to me, it's very special. I have so much support, I have throughout my whole life and career, so to just play in front of them on this stage, you know, it's just really cool.
