Ben James

Quick Quotes

Q. Ben, great finish with 10-under today. Talk through the round and how you made that climb up the leaderboard.

BEN JAMES: Yeah, it was a great day. Started with a approach shot to like three feet. Really kind of struggling with the putter all week, but I think I looked at my stats and I gained almost four today.

Just rolled it great. Hit it -- I think the only fairway I missed was on the last and that was an unfortunate break to roll one foot in the rough. Great up and down. Had a lot of momentum. Kept hitting a lot of the greens and fairways which is nice to do on any day.

Q. There are a lot of low scores coming in today. At what point during your round today did you kind of think maybe I can make a run at it? Or did you have that thought coming into the day?

BEN JAMES: Yeah, I wasn't really thinking about winning. I knew that it would probably take something in the 50s, but I made a nice probably 25-footer on 16 and I was like, oh, we could get close. Just kind of missed my eagle on 17. Probably knew I needed to make that.

Still played a heck of a round of golf and looking forward to keeping the momentum going to Utah.

Q. Early on the season you had trouble in the final rounds; last couple final rounds have been amazing. Find anything or just played great?

BEN JAMES: Yeah, I would say I'm a little more comfortable. I think this is still only event nine as a pro so still not a whole lot of the golf.

I think we've played in college golf a lot of three-round tournaments and now this is four rounds and just a lot more golf, so I think kind of knowing that I made some tweaks with my coach and my golf swing to make it more stable for those four days.

BILTMORE®
CHAMPIONSHIP
ASHEVILLE

But, no, just been having great attitude on these final rounds and I really had nothing to lose the last two Sundays from -- at Greensboro and here and just putted great.

Q. What's the schedule?

BEN JAMES: Yeah, unfortunately not in Japan. Pretty bummed about that. But I'll play probably every other event so I'll be busy.
