Quick Quotes

Q. How do you sum up the afternoon?

MACKENZIE HUGHES: Yeah, it stinks. I mean, I had a little chip there, and that's going to sit with me for a while. Just didn't quite have it today. I didn't play that great in the morning, and they trusted us to come back out in the evening or this afternoon and put a point on the board.

We did a lot of good things but fell short, so it kind of stinks.

Q. Corey, how do you regroup for tomorrow for the singles?

COREY CONNORS: Yeah, obviously a disappointing day today, but some extra motivation to get ourselves back in it and try to get a point on the board for the team. We were close here, and it stings a little bit, but tomorrow is a new day and we'll be fighting hard.
