Q. Hideki, you've been through this many, many times. You know how important every point can be if you're going to win the Presidents Cup this year. How important was it to come out and play well today?

HIDEKI MATSUYAMA: Obviously being alongside Hisatsune for the Japanese team together, I was a little bit nervous, but he played really well today and I did the best I could, and I was just really happy to get the point.
