Q. How satisfying is it to get the first red point on the board?

CAMERON YOUNG: Yeah, it is. That was the job I was given today. So I had to go out and do my job for the guys behind me, and that's all I was trying to do. All these matches are tough. Every time Ryo missed a 20-footer, it felt like a gift. They all looked like they were going in.

Happy to get it over with early. Had a nice chance on the last hole and almost made it and really good to see that one go in.

Q. You were part of the Ryder Cup team 12 months ago. You went out first on Sunday, got the point that day as well. Didn't turn out in your favor. What's the atmosphere like this time in the Presidents Cup?

CAMERON YOUNG: Yeah, it's looking like the guys are playing pretty well behind me. I'm going to go out and follow some guys around, support them through it. Everyone has got the same job as me, so everyone is trying to do the same thing.
