Saturday Morning Foursomes

Q. Disappointing, once they got it going in front of the crowds, made it difficult?

BERND WIESBERGER: Yeah, that was great with Viktor, we had a great start and played really solid today. Just gave away two easy holes in the wrong times on the front nine, and they got lucky on 10, and then holed a long putt, and all of a sudden it kind of switched.

I've got to say, I just hit a couple really poor shots. On 14 I was odd yardage and poor stance and just tried to get tight on it. It was a stupid lost hole there, and unlucky with the tee shot on 15. It wasn't really like a lot of things were going our way it seemed again, and the putters were cold for the most part.

Yeah, it's really unfortunate because I think we had them right where we wanted and just let it slip.

Q. You've played a lot of good stuff over the last two days, obviously disappointing as a rookie, but a lot of positives to take into your next session?

BERND WIESBERGER: Yeah, I mean, I hit a couple really good shots, and I think we connected well and same with Paul yesterday. Seems like the momentum is not there, but it will switch for us. You know, got to dig in deep there. The boys need a big afternoon. Be out there cheering them on. You know, just believe that it's going to change in our favor, and if I can go out on Sunday, and go deep.
