Q. I'm sure you're disappointed today. Can you give some reflections on the week?

PÁDRAIG HARRINGTON: Of course we're disappointed. But the U.S. played well. Look, they out-played us. Strong team. They got their plan right. They got some momentum going. They started well. You know, they just out-played us at the end of the day.

Q. What about your experience here in Wisconsin?

PÁDRAIG HARRINGTON: It's been good, no doubt about it. The fans were better -- it's tough when you're going away and having no Europeans, but certainly above expectations in terms of an away crowd. Obviously there was a lot of momentum for the U.S. with the cheering, and the silence was a little off-putting at the start for us and maybe that held us back a bit.

But we were welcomed very much by the Wisconsin people.
