MARCO SIMONE
ROME, ITALY

Q. Obviously not the result you really wanted but it was a battle, wasn't it.

NICOLAI HØJGAARD: Yeah, it was good fun out there. The crowds were great. Yeah, it's never fun losing. I hate losing, and we gave it our best today and we got down pretty early, and it was a tough grind. Chip-in on 16. We hung in there on the back nine trying to gain momentum. Didn't have our luck with us today but we've got tomorrow and we'll go out and try our best to get some points.

Q. How did it feel to hole that putt on 14?

NICOLAI HØJGAARD: It felt good. It felt good. We needed something to happen, and on 16, we gave ourselves a chance on 17, 18, so we tried our best. Didn't happen today so we'll do our best tomorrow.
