Q. Let's talk a little bit about how you're feeling going into tomorrow and having Collin as your partner and going out in the third group.

HARRIS ENGLISH: I'm excited. I've known Collin ever since he got on the TOUR. I've always respected his game and love his fire and energy that he brings. I feel like we team up well. We've kind of been having this pairing for a couple weeks now and been preparing for it, and looking forward to getting out there and doing it. I haven't played a whole lot of alternate shot in the Ryder Cup. I played four-ball with Tony four years ago, but I'm looking forward to doing it. It's going to be a lot of fun.

Q. What do you think will be some of the keys to you two being successful on the course together tomorrow?

HARRIS ENGLISH: Just staying in rhythm, staying in the present, just playing both of our games. He's an incredible iron player, so as long as I can put the ball in the fairway for him and getting those irons in his hand and getting my putter going, that's kind of the key. I know he's been playing really well lately, and I love watching him play. Hopefully we can get in rhythm. We've got a good -- kind of getting some of Europe's best in Rory and Fleetwood. They've played really well together. Looking forward to that matchup.
