Q. Xander, you and Patrick have played many times together. What are you looking forward to most playing with Patrick again tomorrow?

XANDER SCHAUFFELE: Yeah, we've competed a lot, especially in this alternate shot format, whether in Presidents Cups, Ryder Cups. Leaning on all that experience. We have a lot of fun, and we try to get it in sync as quickly as possible, almost play like one person.

Q. Starting off with foursomes tomorrow, what are the keys to success in the foursome matches in the morning?

XANDER SCHAUFFELE: Yeah, getting comfortable. We're sort of the anchor match there. We're really pumped with the three groups we have in front of us, and those boys are going to get to work, and all we're trying to do is get our point and focus on us, so get comfortable quickly, get the fans into it quickly, and yeah, get that point.
