Q. A brand new partnership with Matt Fitzpatrick tomorrow. How much are you looking forward to that?

LUDVIG ÅBERG: Yeah, a lot. We've been playing together a lot the last couple weeks. It's a plan set in place by Luke, and we all trust in that. It's going to be a lot of fun and looking forward to play some good golf together.

Q. Going against the No. 1 as well, the atmosphere is going to be electric out there.

LUDVIG ÅBERG: Yeah, absolutely. That's what we expect no matter what the other side's pairing is. Obviously that's what we like. We want really good, hard competition and that's what we're going to get tomorrow.
