Q. Ludvig, how significant is it for Europe to take down the world No. 1 this morning?

LUDVIG ABERG: Many yeah, I had a great partner. I think that speaks to it. But yeah, we came out of the gates early, birdied No. 1, which is nice, and then we made good golf. We hit a lot of nice shots, and yeah, made it hard for them today, which was good.

Q. You shared a lot of passion out there. Matt this is your first point in the foursomes is format. You proved a lot this morning. What was it that Luke saw in this duo that clearly has paid off?

MATT FITZPATRICK: Obviously I played well the last few months. Ludvig is nonstop playing well since he turned pro. Yeah, obviously it was a nice mix of tee-to-green and good putting, as well, and obviously I felt like we showed that on certainly those first seven holes.
