Quick Quotes

Q. How would you summarize your first U.S. Open experience as a whole?

JAKE SOLLON: I mean, it was fun. It was a good time, but didn't play nearly as well as we wanted to play.

Q. What did you learn about yourself over the last two rounds?

JAKE SOLLON: Golf's hard. Played a decent second 18, but the first 18 was pretty terrible, and we'll learn from it.

Q. Can you talk about the round one birdie on 2, and I'm assuming that's kind of the highlight of the week in terms of your game?

JAKE SOLLON: Yeah, that was a pretty good swing. I hit hybrid to probably 8 feet and made it.

Q. What was it like qualifying here? How were your emotions going into the playoff that you had to get to get into this field?

JAKE SOLLON: I was pretty nervous. Hole 6, 166 yards. I hit a 9-iron to probably 8 inches and tapped it in.
