Quick Quotes

Q. Low round of the day so far on Sunday. What was the strongest part of your game that allowed you to be in attack mode, especially on the front nine?

PAJAREE ANANNARUKARN: I think putting, speed control. My reading was on point the front nine. Obviously the back nine I had some really good birdie chances but I missed a few. I made a good stroke and it just didn't go in. But still really patient out there was definitely the key, too.

But some really good shot, like on 9. I had a good like chip-in, so that was fun.

But overall I was really pleased how I played and glad my putting was hot today.
