Quick Quotes

Q. Talk about the round, 68. You're in fourth place now. What's your thoughts on your round? How are you feeling?

Y.E. YANG: Yeah, it's a good feeling. Today last couple holes, we stop. People play good, and after last hole little uncomfortable finish. It's okay. Today is good playing.

Q. How about tomorrow? What are your thoughts about the third round?

Y.E. YANG: This course is important tee shot to keep the fairway. It's very important. Tomorrow a little more fairway.

Q. How is the putting today for you?

Y.E. YANG: Putting not so bad. Only last, No. 9 par-5. Maybe five, six feet; missed putt.

But today whole day, I think this is good.

Q. After the rain, what did the rain do to you mentally? What are your thoughts?

Y.E. YANG: Just have 8 green and No. 9. Only two holes, just a little stretch, and it's okay.

Q. Is the course drying out? Is it still wet? Or is it in pretty good shape?

Y.E. YANG: Little wet. Just some greens are slow and spin back and difficult to control speed and distance. Hopefully tomorrow better weather. Maybe more good.

Q. Did you play on the Asian Tour?

Y.E. YANG: A long time ago.

Q. Like when? Did you play any events in the PGA TOUR -- not the Senior, but the regular TOUR?

Y.E. YANG: Yes.

Q. How long did you play on that?

Y.E. YANG: Seven years.

Q. Any good memories?

Y.E. YANG: Just only win the PGA.

Q. That worked out for you. From Korea, right?

Y.E. YANG: Yeah, born in Korea.

Q. In Seoul?

Y.E. YANG: Korea, on the south on an island, Jeju Island.
