Quick Quotes

Q. I realize you're disappointed, but you did a lot of good out there the last four days.

MARK HENSBY: Yeah, I'm going to be honest, today I just got off to a bad start. We just hit a few clubs that probably weren't the right clubs and hit it in some bad spots where it's hard to two-putt. Just couldn't get any momentum going. Just couldn't get the putter right today.

Q. What an experience, though. You played in the spotlight. It was a great day for golf today. Some of the feelings you might have about that.

MARK HENSBY: No doubt. As I said last night in the media tent, when you play with two -- one Hall of Famer, and Stewart Cink obviously a very accomplished player, it's always fun. You always learn something from them, what they do.

I felt comfortable, I must admit. Obviously we all get nervous, but I just didn't get off to the start I needed to really contend. Overall I'm happy for the week. I had a good week.

Q. The week was good to you. Happy birthday, by the way.

MARK HENSBY: Thank you.
