Quick Quotes

Q. That last shot coming in, what was your yardage?

IAN POULTER: 174.

Q. What did you hit coming in?

IAN POULTER: Three-quarter cut 7-iron.

Q. Front nine was a battle; back nine really rebounded. How do you feel?

IAN POULTER: Really disappointed. Just double bogeyed 8, which was poor. I bogeyed that the first two days, so that's had four shots off me this week just on that one hole. Just hit three poor tee shots down that hole. Just left a load of shots on the golf course.

I'm a ways back. I'm going to need to go super, super, super low tomorrow, so I'm going to head to the range and clip a couple and hopefully we get there tomorrow.

Q. Is it coming home?

IAN POULTER: I hope so. Listen, we're playing Mexico in the Azteca. They've lost two games in 53 years, so that says it all. This will be our toughest test yet, so I hope so.
