Q. Here with Jordan Thomas, 2-under par today. Six birdies today. What went well for you today?

JORDAN THOMAS: Was it six birdies? Unbelievable, wow. I hit some wedges pretty good. I putted it really well. I made some really sloppy mistakes, but overall shooting under par is always a good thing.

Yeah, I feel like I just struck the ball pretty well, putted it pretty well, took advantage of the par-5s, and it was a good day.

Q. Going into tomorrow, you're still very much in the mix, I would say. What's kind of your strategy or game plan?

JORDAN THOMAS: I haven't even looked at the leaderboard. How many back am I?

Q. We still have to wait for a couple more groups to finish up. Right now you're T-12. Anything can happen.

JORDAN THOMAS: What's in the lead right now, 9? I'm nowhere near. It looks like I'm going to have to go on a birdie fest. So my goal tomorrow is to fire at every pin possible and make some birdies.

Q. And then just how has this week been going for you? Are you having fun seeing everyone?

JORDAN THOMAS: This is the greatest traveling circus on the planet is Adaptive Golf. To be at such an amazing facility and the way you guys at the USGA put it on for us, it's one of the most memorable weeks of the year every single year for sure. It's a family that I love and respect so many people that are here.

Q. Anything out for the pailers?

JORDAN THOMAS: Just stay grinding, boys, the ladies and the boys. We have lots of lady lunch pailers. Stay grinding, flight the wedges, fix the divots, the usual.
