Q. Here with Justin Carlock. 3-under for the day; 9-under for the championship. Justin, could you talk us through your round today?

JUSTIN CARLOCK: Yeah, it started off with a couple fireworks. I was almost pin high right on hole number three and pitched it in from about 35 yards. So that kind of got us jump started.

Then a couple pars. Made another birdie on seven. Couple small missteps coming in, but overall really, really happy with how it went today.

Q. Ended up T3 for the championship. How did that align with maybe your kind of expectations or goals coming in?

JUSTIN CARLOCK: I'm really greedy. I want to win so bad. But overall, I mean this is my first time in the adaptive tournament space, so very happy. It's definitely a win for me and the family coming out here this week.

Q. It being your first, just maybe sum up the week here at Woodmont.

JUSTIN CARLOCK: This one is going to be very hard to top. The Woodmont staff, the golf course, the USGA, everybody here has made this exceptionally awesome.

This will be very tough to beat going forward. It's just been incredible.

Q. What does the rest of the summer look like for you? Any other tournaments or championships coming up?

JUSTIN CARLOCK: Yeah, so I play in a lot of the Colorado PGA section events. So here in a few weeks we have Section Championships coming up. Last summer I was very fortunate. I won the assistance championship for the section, so that's coming up again as well.

So hopefully we get through the section and hopefully we
