Q. Obviously an exciting moment today early in your round. Just take me through your ace on hole 12.

CHELLA CHOI: Yeah, before sun came out like little chilly and golf course is little wet and far. I made a hole in one. I'm very excited to play the whole round.

Q. What was the yardage and what did you hit on that hole?

CHELLA CHOI: Hit a 4-hybrid, 20-hybrid to the pin -- I'm not sure yardage.

Q. Well, if you just had to sum up what it means to --

CHELLA CHOI: I try to 190 shot, yeah.

Q. If you had to sum up what it means to make an ace in a U.S. Women's Open, as a player, what does what mean to you?

CHELLA CHOI: You know, I was really excited. Like golf course is really tough and that hole is very tough, so I trying to make a par. That is my goal.

But I made a hole-in-one, so I'm very like -- everything positive think, like, yeah.

Q. That was a great shot. See you tomorrow.

CHELLA CHOI: Thank you. Three year lucky, right? Thank you.
