Quick Quotes

Q. Shinsil Bang with us now at the 2025 KPMG Women's PGA Championship. 1-under for you today. What did you like about your round?

SHINSIL BANG: (Through translation.) It's second major championship LPGA and PGA of America organize and I was really excited before that I'm just being coming here, and went some practice round and the course setting was really hard because a major.

We are also thinking about the strategy and it works well today so I can make it 1-under par today.

Q. How do you deal with the conditions? I mean, the heat, it's tough. So mentally how do you prepare to deal with the conditions like this?

SHINSIL BANG: (Through translation.) I never imagine it's hot like this. And then also I was playing KLPGA until last week, so I flew up here on Monday so I have some jet lag right now.

But I'm keep focus on the 18 holes and I just grab my mental at the end.

Q. So for the last three days, what is your attitude? What is your aspirations, no?

SHINSIL BANG: I'm going to focus on every shot that I shoot, and also focus on the strategy, too.

And then I'm going to enjoy it and get back to Korea. That's it.
