Q. Here alongside Katelyn Sepmoree, a member of the Corebridge Financial Team making her major debut this week. You hit the opening tee shot to start this championship. How would you describe the experience this week?

KATELYN SEPMOREE: It's been great. It was everything I expected, and my goal going into the week was to enjoy every moment and I did that. I did that with my friends and my family being here, so I'm very grateful.

Q. Speaking of them, you had so many friends and family out supporting you. What was it like to compete in a major championship with them looking on?

KATELYN SEPMOREE: Oh, it was what I wanted. They've been a part of my career and they're as much of my success as I have been. I just want to say thank you to everybody who came out. Thank you to my section and to my mom, my parents, my circle. You know who you are, so I'm grateful.

Q. You're one of more than 30,000 PGA members across this country. You got to represent them here this week in this championship. What does that mean to you?

KATELYN SEPMOREE: Hard to put into words honestly. The PGA has opened a lot of doors for me, and I look forward to continuing my career and to represent them in the way I have. And I look forward to doing it again and I'm grateful to be a part of PGA of America.
