

KPMG Women's PGA Championship

Friday, June 26, 2026

Chaska, Minnesota, USA

Hazeltine National Golf Club

Weiwei Zhang

Quick Quotes

Q. Weiwei Zhang is with us now at the 2026 KPMG Women's PGA Championship. Weiwei, 4-under for you today. What did you do well out there?

WEIWEI ZHANG: I did great job today and I got eight birdies, and so proud here because tough course and I got lot birdie here. I'm so happy today.

Q. So eight birdies is a lot of birdies, and then four bogeys. So just talk about the birdies a little bit. Is that something that happens to you often? Is that your type of game? Is it aggressive?

WEIWEI ZHANG: Yeah, for now, today my approach is great, so I just aggressive than before and had lot of chance to make birdie, and I hole some like ten-foot putt, ten-foot birdie.

So, yeah, it's good.

Q. I'm assuming the fact that it's a major didn't make you be more defensive or more careful. You still play your game, no?

WEIWEI ZHANG: Yeah, for this week my goal only just smooth swing and confident short putt and clear mind. I don't think much about score, yeah. But I still feel a lot pressure here, uh-huh.

Q. Can I ask you, how close were you hitting it? Looked like you pretty much -- that stretch six, seven, eight, were you in a really good rhythm there?

WEIWEI ZHANG: Yes, I hit really close, like I think it's inside ten feet. And seven hole is a par-5 and I reach to the only 20 feet to the pin, yeah, and two-putt for birdie.

Q. The par-5s, I think you birdied three of them today. Are they holes you feel you have to take advantage of?

WEIWEI ZHANG: Yes. I take -- yes, I was aggressive on par-5 today and I have lot chance in par-5, uh-huh.

Q. So you were saying you're still nervous; it's a major. How do you use that in your favor? How is that good for you to be nervous here?

WEIWEI ZHANG: Nervous?

Q. Feeling the pressure.

WEIWEI ZHANG: Oh, yes. I feel a lot pressure this week. I know this is the highest money this week, and I had -- last month I didn't play well and this week I just make more confidence this week.

Q. So it helps you? That pressure helps you you think?

WEIWEI ZHANG: I don't think the pressure help me, but I just keep my mind more clear and I just take breaths on the course and that help me.

The pressure not help me.

FastScripts by ASAP Sports