Q. All right, here with Nelly Korda. Just how to you reset after this week and get ready for Evian coming up here?

NELLY KORDA: Just rest a little bit. Yeah, and get back practicing.

Q. Anything you have planned for this coming week?

NELLY KORDA: No. Just chill for a few days and then practice.

Q. Curious, coming off 10 with a birdie were you feeling the momentum?

NELLY KORDA: I was just trying to take it a shot at a time really. I didn't know where the leaders were at, so I was just trying to focus at myself, yeah.

Q. How disappointed are you coming short in the third major in a row?

NELLY KORDA: That was definitely -- you guys made that such a big thing. I didn't think about that, no. Like not -- I was just kind of disappointed in the way that I played this week, not that I came up short really.

I was just thinking about the way that I played, not like the realistic big picture that everyone is talking about.

Q. When will you head to France?

NELLY KORDA: Saturday and then I'll get there Sunday, yeah.

Q. Will you stay in Europe the whole time, go to Prague?

NELLY KORDA: Yeah, I'll go for one week there and then play Scottish and British.
