Quick Quotes

Q. Ina Yoon joins us now at the 2026 KPMG Women's PGA Championship. Ina, thoughts please on your solo second finish this week?

INA YOON: It's hard to describe. Grateful to, you know, have a really valuable experience that I have today.

Little disappointed yesterday and today, but I think I did pretty good job being under pressure and it's just part of golf.

I think it's going to be really big lesson in the big picture, big future, and, yeah, was really -- I was having really fun today, yesterday as well.

I mean, this week was great. Playing my life I think. I had fun with Kevin. And Haeran played unbelievable today. Brooke, I like to play her, play with her all the time. She's such a nice girl.

I learn a lot today, this week.

Q. Ina, I think you did amazing this week. How good does it feel in perspective, now? The second major and to do what you did here this week, no?

INA YOON: I'm really grateful. I don't know why tears coming out. But, yeah, it's going to be really, you know, big lesson for my golf life. Yeah, I try to embrace positively and I think I need some time to, you know, get okay.

Q. Did you feel like you handled the nerves better today?

INA YOON: Yeah, I think so. It's getting better. I could tell. Yeah, yesterday front nine was really nervous and I was getting better yesterday, but today was way better than yesterday, so I think I'm improving.

Q. If you think about Evian coming up, AIG, how do you think about that?

INA YOON: It's awesome. I missed cut on U.S. Open but I learn about some nice thing from it. Yeah, I like major tournament. Make me you know get nervous more than just like normal -- I mean every tournament give me nervous, but especially major bring me little more anxious and feel a little shaking body.

Always have a lot of -- always get a lot of lesson from major tournaments.
